

IELTS Writing Community

www.BayaneBartar.org

IELTS Writing Community

Lecture 28 The Five Golden Minutes for Proofreading

The Importance of Proofreading

Manage your time to invest FIVE Minutes to Proofreading

However, each job have different characteristics and the factors which people make feel content are also different.

However, each job has different characteristics, and the factors which make people feel content are also varied.

What to Check and What NOT to Check

These are the things NOT to Check

- Natural English
- Synonyms and Paraphrasing
- The Structure of your Response
- How Strong your Arguments are
- Tenses

These are the things to Check

- Articles Usage (A/An/The/No Article)
- Singular/Plural/Countable/Uncountable Nouns
- Prepositions
- Punctuation
- Subject-Verb Agreements
- Spelling Mistakes
- Word Formation Issues
- Word Order/Missing Word Issues

Exercise Read the paragraph and find all the mistakes.

On the one hand those who believe teenage conflict is damaging would argue that it can break the relationship between parents and children. This happen because during conflicts, hurtful words can be thrown about, which can be cause tention, animosity and distrust. For example, if adolescents want get tattoos, most parents would not agree in this, and inevitable conflict might lead teenage to get the tattoos made their behind parents backs. In contrast, this lies might be avoided if parents is willing to have discussions with their childrens. As a result, family members will feel satisfied and a trust will be built.

On the one hand, those who believe teenage conflict is damaging would argue that it can break the relationship between parents and children. This happens because during conflict, hurtful words can be thrown about, which can be cause tension, animosity and distrust. For example, if adolescents want to get tattoos, most parents would not agree with ~~in~~ this, and the inevitable conflict might lead teenagers to get the tattoos made behind their parents' backs. In contrast, these lies might be avoided if parents are willing to have discussions with their children. As a result, family members will feel satisfied and a-trust will be built.

Contact me

Hamed Mohammad Hosseini

t.me/Hamedmhosseini

hmhosseini@BayaneBartar.org